Cosulich Interiors in collaboration with Matlight: this bespoke contemporary desk/table lamp is named Aura, for the distinctive atmosphere and quality that surround this design. The minimalist silhouette presents a strong character in its sculptural and clean organic modern style: a simple curve forms a base as well as a body that supports an aluminum curled section with a refined bronzed burnt finish.

Each detail has its functionality: the curved body is fitted with embedded high lumen LEDs so that the aerial wing reflects the light, generating in this way a concentrated aura for a relaxing and cozy ambiance.

Stefano Rubertelli is an Italian product Designer who lives in London, with an extensive background in art and sculpture. This piece is also available in green Guatemala marble.
