/ item

One-of-a-kind vintage Italian Murano glass chandelier of lush design, the frosted white blown Murano glass parts, central pole and half moon bowl are handcrafted with crackled texture giving a precious effect. This is a gem with very rare and sophisticated organic decor consisting of refined Murano glass branches, each individually blown and handcrafted to resemble staghorn corals, uniquely outlined with an elegant crystal clear stem bearing sprigs in such a rich burgundy color that has black and deep red reflections.
