Cosulich interiors in collaboration with Atelier Terrai: Italian contemporary honey onyx and satin brass table Lamp called Satellite, entirely handcrafted in Italy. This organic modern design is inspired by nature, earth and water, with a combination of hand cut flat curved elements in stone and brass interspersed with dimensional spacing. The color of the stone accompanied by the gold metal ranges from tints of orange to tan yellow with crystalline white veins. This sculpture piece works as a stand alone lamp for a side table, functional and versatile for reading or ambience, or to add flair above a console, to enhance an entryway mirror or a bathroom. Customizations available upon request for stones and metal finishes.
