Cosulich interiors in collaboration with Atelier Terrai: Italian contemporary sexy wall light, part of the Evolution collection, entirely handcrafted in Italy, in true Alabaster with an elegant finish, this particular design inspired by Surrealism.

The Evolution organic modern design speaks about nature, earth and water, with a combination of contrasting elements, like the dripping melting decor designed to create an optical illusion in the solid stone. Much more than just a sconce, it is an artistic sculpture on its own while its use is functional and versatile, to add a Grand Tour flair to a room or above a console, to enhance an entryway mirror or a bathroom.

Part of the Atelier Terrai Evolution Series: a mirror ATEM1, a console ATEC1, and geometric wall lights ATEW1. Customizations available upon request for stone: Alabaster and onyx and for metal finishes.
